

- (4) Ministers must administer their portfolios in accordance with the policy determined by the Cabinet.
- (5) If a Minister fails to administer the portfolio in accordance with the policy of the Cabinet, the President may require the Minister concerned to bring the administration of the portfolio into conformity with that policy.
- (6) If the Minister concerned fails to comply with a requirement of the President under subsection (5), the President may remove the Minister from office—
 - (a) if it is a Minister referred to in section 91(1)(a), after consultation with the Minister and, if the Minister is not a member of the President's party or is not the leader of a participating party, also after consultation with the leader of that Minister's party; or
 - (b) if it is a Minister referred to in section 91(1)(b), after consultation with the Executive Deputy Presidents and the leaders of the participating parties.”
