- (2) A party represented in a provincial legislature—
 - (a) must nominate its permanent delegates from among the persons who were senators when the new Constitution took effect and are available to serve as permanent delegates; and
 - (b) may nominate other persons as permanent delegates only if none or an insufficient number of its former senators are available.
- (3) A provincial legislature must appoint its permanent delegates in accordance with the nominations of the parties.
- (4) Subitems (2) and (3) apply only to the first appointment of permanent delegates to the National Council of Provinces.
- (5) Section 62(1) of the new Constitution does not apply to the nomination and appointment of former senators as permanent delegates in terms of this item.
