Chapter 4: Parliament

- (4) A Bill must be dealt with in accordance with the procedure established by subsection (1) if it provides for legislation—
 - (a) envisaged in section 44(2) or 220(3); or
 - (b) envisaged in Chapter 13, and which includes any provision affecting the financial interests of the provincial sphere of government.

[Para. (b) substituted by s. 1 of the Constitution Eleventh Amendment Act of 2003.]

- (5) A Bill envisaged in section 42(6) must be dealt with in accordance with the procedure established by subsection (1), except that—
 - (a) when the National Assembly votes on the Bill, the provisions of section 53(1)
 do not apply; instead, the Bill may be passed only if a majority of the members of the Assembly vote in favour of it: and
 - (b) if the Bill is referred to the Mediation Committee, the following rules apply:
 - If the National Assembly considers a Bill envisaged in subsection (1)(g) or (h), that Bill may be passed only if a majority of the members of the Assembly vote in favour of it.
 - (ii) If the National Assembly considers or reconsiders a Bill envisaged in subsection (1)(e), (i) or (j), that Bill may be passed only if at least two thirds of the members of the Assembly vote in favour of it.
- (6) This section does not apply to money Bills.

Money Bills

- 77. (1) A Bill is a money Bill if it—
 - (a) appropriates money;
 - (b) imposes national taxes, levies, duties or surcharges;
 - (c) abolishes or reduces, or grants exemptions from, any national taxes, levies, duties or surcharges; or
 - (d) authorises direct charges against the National Revenue Fund, except a Bill envisaged in section 214 authorising direct charges.
 - (2) A money Bill may not deal with any other matter except—
 - (a) a subordinate matter incidental to the appropriation of money;
 - (b) the imposition, abolition or reduction of national taxes, levies, duties or surcharges;
 - (c) the granting of exemption from national taxes, levies, duties or surcharges; or
 - (d) the authorisation of direct charges against the National Revenue Fund.
